2022-2023

This series of CTLE Professional Development workshops for Visual & Media Art teachers is presented through SCALA & Eastern Suffolk BOCES Arts-in-Education Program.

Remember to frequently check our website for in-depth course descriptions, updates and additional information.

www.SCALAart.org

All workshops address the current NYS Learning Standards for the Arts in Visual Arts and/or Media Arts.

Professional Development CTLE Workshops

Workshops will meet in-person for 3 hours each evening (4:30PM - 7:30PM).

Classes meet either one or two evenings.

Classes are subject to change to a virtual setting at a moment’s notice. It is imperative to check your email as this is the method we will use to communicate last-minute details.

CTLE / PD credit will be given to participants for the total amount of hours that they attend.

For any classes that need to shift to a virtual setting, participants will receive login information prior to the workshop.

CTLE Professional Development Series

Thursday, October 6th 2022 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

Holiday Origami Walk

Clinician: Missy Longo-Lewis

Join us for a stroll with paper through the fall and winter months! Your students will be hooked on Origami once they learn these fun and simple paper engineered models. Origami can reinforce language skills and is cross-curricular.

Location: Lindenhurst Middle School, Room 315
350 S. Wellwood Ave., Lindenhurst, NY 11757

Thursdays, October 20th & 27th 2022 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

Sew GOOOOD!!!

Clinician: Christie Layden

Inspired by English artist Lucy Sparrow, students will learn to hand sew popular foods made from felt.

Location: Walter G. O’Connell Copiague HS, Room 163A
1100 Dixon Ave., Copiague, NY 11726

Thursday, November 3rd 2022 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

Dragon Eye Boxes

Clinician: Krystal Zaglool

In this class you will learn how to create a dragon eye box using polymer clay. The lesson will focus on elements such as color, form and texture. This engaging lesson can be done with upper elementary and higher. You and your students will love creating this functional piece of art!

Location: Idle Hour Elementary, Room 34
334 Idle Hour Blvd., Oakdale, NY 11769

Thursday, December 1st 2022 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

SPECIAL EVENT - Heckscher’s Long Island Biennial

Tour the L.I. Biennial and get inspired by local contemporary artists! Next, enjoy a talk by Kasmira Mohanty as she discusses her artwork. Mohanty’s artwork incorporates her love of street and graffiti art coupled with an abundance of pattern, color, line and texture. Get hands-on as Mohanty shares how to create a hand-rendered repeating pattern in any style or medium. Finally, learn about the mixed-media artwork of Eileen Palmer and create your own imaginative animal sculpture using wire, fabric, paper and more!

Fee: A $10 deposit/check is required to reserve your spot for this special event. This will be returned to you when you attend the event. If you do not attend, you forfeit your deposit. Please make checks out to “Suffolk County Art Leaders Association (SCALA)” and mail to SCALA at PO Box 1406, Selden, NY 11784.

Location: Heckscher Museum of Art, 2 Prime Ave., Huntington, NY 11743

CTLE Professional Development Series

Thursday, March 9th 2023 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

Earth Day
Clinician: Missy Longo-Lewis & Jacqueline Korsen
Want to engage your students in a paper engineering festival? We have mustered up some creative models, as well as exciting methods of altering and personalizing them. The practice, patience and precision of Origami reinforces spatial and kinesthetic skills, and more!
Location: Lindenhurst Middle School, Room 315
350 S. Wellwood Ave., Lindenhurst, NY 11757

Thursday, March 16th 2023 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

SPECIAL EVENT - Long Island Museum Exhibit & Workshop
Event Topic: Romare Bearden - Artist as Activist & Visionary
Presenting examples of Bearden's influences as an artist of social conscience and action, this exhibit will feature a diverse collection of works through which Romare Bearden (1911-1988) explored race and racial stereotypes, often taking inspiration from history, literature, the Bible, jazz, the African American community, and his imagination. Join us for a guided tour and workshop!
Fee: A $10 deposit/check is required to reserve your spot for this special event. This will be returned to you when you attend the event. If you do not attend, you forfeit your deposit. Please make checks out to “Suffolk County Art Leaders Association (SCALA)” and mail to SCALA at PO Box 1406, Selden, NY 11784.
Location: Long Island Museum
1200 NY-25A, Stony Brook, NY 11790

Thursday, March 23rd 2023 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

Memory Boxes
Clinician: Carolann Lally
Learn to use scrapbooking and journaling skills to create unique memory boxes with simple crafting materials. The lesson is appropriate for grades K - 12, depending on where the students’ interests and abilities lie. The boxes can also be made as gifts to be given to local nursing homes/hospitals to keep some personal keepsakes or jewelry inside.
Location: Babylon High School, Room 209
50 Railroad Ave., Babylon, NY 11702

Thursday, April 27th 2023 - 4:30PM - 7:30PM

Digital Photography
Clinician: Dan Kudreyko
Digital Photography is an important skill to have both as an artist and art teacher. Concepts of file transferring, file types, lighting, composition, aperture, shutter speed and light painting will all be introduced. Together we will participate in capturing original photographs and explore ways to transfer these to computers for further creative production.
Location: Center Moriches High School, Room 306
311 Frowein Rd., Center Moriches, NY 11934
