CTLE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP SERIES FOR ART EDUCATORS

Professional Development
Workshops

2021-2022

A series of CTLE Professional Development workshops for Visual Art teachers. Presented through SCALA and the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Arts in Education Program

Remember to always check our website for in-depth course descriptions, updates and additional information.

<https://www.SCALAart.org>

All workshops address the 2017 NYS P-12 Learning Standards for the Arts.

SCALA will be holding our Professional Development Workshops both in-person and virtually.

In-person workshops will meet for 3 hours each evening. (4:30pm-7:30pm)
Virtual workshops will meet 1½ hours per evening. (6:00-7:30pm)
(Classes meet either one or two evenings, some are a combination of in-person and virtual)

Classes may need to be changed to virtual at a moment's notice and it's imperative that everyone check their email as we will do our best to keep everyone informed ASAP.

CTLE/PD credit will be given to each participant for the total amount of hours that they attend. For virtual classes, participants will receive login information prior to each workshop.

Location: ArtSea Studio 65 Deer Park Ave,
Babylon NY 11702 (631)579-6063

This event is FREE and open to all art teachers

Please register through the website so we have a head count for the evening.

Date: Thursday – Sept. 23, 2021
Time: 6:00-8:00pm

Join SCALA for a meet 'n greet Thursday September 23rd from 6-8pm. It will be an evening to meet the instructors and see samples of the projects you will be making for each class. You will have a chance to sign up for classes as well that evening. Light refreshments to be served. Please note there will be no CTLE credit given for this event.

Thursday – Oct. 7 & Oct. 14, 2021

Zines as an Introduction Tool

Clinician: Karissa LaLima

Date: Thursday – Oct. 7 & Oct. 14
Virtual 6-7:30pm (Total 3 hours of CTLE / PD)

Zines are a cheap and creative way to share information. I just started to teach Zines during the pandemic, but they are now a staple in my studio curriculum. Minimal materials are required, many elements and principles are covered, and students are constantly engaged! I like to use Zines to introduce myself, my class procedures and to learn about my students' interests!

Thursday – Oct. 21 & Oct. 28, 2021

Gelli Printing in the Classroom

Clinician: Lauren Lewonka

Date: Thursday – Oct. 21 (in-person 4:30-7:30pm) & Oct. 28, 2021 (Virtual 6-7:00pm)
(Total 4 hours CTLE / PD)

Location: Port Jefferson Schools

Reminder
Signing up on My Learning Plan
DOES NOT
sign you up for the classes.
Registration MUST BE done
through the SCALA website
<https://www.SCALAart.org>

Learn some gelli-printing monotype strategies to use in a classroom setting, and how to save money by making your own gelatin plates at home. Gelatin prints can make great backgrounds for other types of printmaking (i.e., block printing), or can stand alone as beautiful, one-of-a-kind works of art.

Thursday – December 2, 2021

Google Drawing Portraits

Clinician: Nicole Scoca

Date: Thursday – December 2, 2021
Virtual 6-7:30pm

Create a self-portrait within google suite program google drawing. Its limited features do not prevent you from creating a portrait with highlights/shadows and all proper facial features! Great for any age group 5th and up. Very watered-down Photoshop features allow this program to be very user friendly.

Thursday – December 9, 2021

Brush-Style Lettering with Markers

Clinician: Carmela Bode

Date: Thursday – December 9, 2021
Virtual 6-7:30pm

This workshop will demonstrate how any marker can be used to write the flowing casual lettering style known as brush script. Exemplars of different alphabets and a variety of project possibilities including using this script for sketchbook and journaling will be presented.

Thursday – Jan. 13 & Jan. 20, 2022

Wheel Throwing

Clinician: Karissa LaLima

Date: Thursday – January 13 & January 20, 2022 (In-person 4:30-7:30pm)
(Total 6 hours CTLE / PD)

Location: Middle Country

In this class, you will learn the basics of wheel throwing. Week 1 you will learn how to center your clay, pull walls, and shape your vessel. Week 2 we will cover how to carve a foot on a leather hard vessel.

This class also has a bonus project where you will learn how to make my student's all-time favorite project, pinch pot pumpkins. *This workshop is limited to 10 people – so register early!

Mindsapes and the Moon at the Heckscher

Clinician: Heckscher Museum

Date: January 27, 2022. (4:30-7:30pm)
(Total 3 hours CTLE / PD)

Location: Heckscher Museum

Welcome in 2022 with an in-person visit to the Heckscher Museum! Enjoy a self-guided tour of our brand-new exhibitions, Moonstruck and African- American artist Richard Mayhew: Reinvented Landscapes. Engage in Lively discussions and create a beautiful mixed-media work of art inspired the exhibitions.

Thursday – Feb. 3 & Feb. 10, 2022

Print Plate Making with a Cricut

Clinician: Kasmira Mohanty

Date: February 3 (Virtual 6-7:00pm) & February 10, 2022 (In-person 4:30-7:30pm)
(Total 4 hours CTLE/PD)

Location: Huntington High School

Let me share my recent, evolutionary invention of creating an Intaglio or Relief plate for printmaking using a black and white digital image converted into an SVG, a Cricut and mat board. The resulting plate you can use with or without an etching press. Students will be shown how to create an SVG image and how to upload it onto the online Cricut software to create the plate. Loads of fun, safe and a great time saver.

Thursday – March 10, 2022

Reflections Inside & Out

Clinician: Jacqueline Korsen

Date: March 10, 2022 (In-person 4:30-7:30pm)
(Total 3 hours CTLE / PD)

Location: Lindenhurst Middle School

This project can be a new and fun vehicle for you to get to know your students and the opportunity for students to get to know each other. Each student can tailor their project using their favorite art media while incorporating the Elements of Art & Principles of Design. Lettering, collage, and shading are topics that are touched upon. The "sharing" part of the project can be covered using public speaking, writing, images and/or technology such as the Flip Grid program. All that is needed is a lunch size paper bag, some basic art supplies, and your personality.

Origami Bases Hit a Grand Slam!

Clinician: Missy Longo-Lewis, Jacqueline Korsen

Date: March 24 & March 31, 2022 (In-person 4:30-7:30pm)
(Total 6 hours CTLE / PD)

Location: Lindenhurst Middle School

Let's hit a "grand slam" by learning the origami bases that lead to an amazing amount of origami models. Teachers will supply resources for visual, auditory, kinesthetic, and reading learners. Participants will have the opportunity to individualize the basic origami models into their own unique creations using collage and drawing materials. Origami can teach the Elements of Art and the Principles of Design in a fun, fresh way. With origami as part of your "lineup", you will be sure to have ART champions at every level!
